MONTHLY LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

AUGUST 1933

Any of the publications listed herein may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. As his office is not connected with the Department and as the Department does not sell publications, PLEASE SEND NO REMITTANCE to the United States Department of Agriculture.

FARMERS' BULLETINS

These bulletins discuss in nontechnical language a wide variety of subjects pertaining to the farm and farm home.

The rough-headed corn stalk beetle in the Southern States and its control. W. J. Phillips and Henry Fox. Bureau of Entomology. 6 p., illus. (F.B. 875F., rev.) Price, 5¢.

Strawberry diseases. Neil E. Stevens, Bureau of Plant Industry. 18 p., illus. (F.B. 1458F., rev.) Price, 5¢.

Rat control. James Silver. Bureau of Biological Survey. 21 p., illus. (F.B. 1533 F., rev.) Price, 5¢.

Marketing farm produce by parcel post. Lewis B. Flohr, Bureau of Agricultural Economics. 54 p., illus. (F.B. 1551F., rev.) Price, 5¢.

LEAFLETS

This series carries popular material of the same general character as that carried by the Farmers' Bulletins except that the leaflets are confined to specific practical directions, recommendations, remedies, and methods. They are brief and concise, written in informal, popular style, and are limited to eight pages.

Improving cattle in areas freed of ticks. John R. Mohler. Bureau of Animal Industry. 8 p., illus. (Leaflet 51L, rev.) Price, 5¢.

Gives practical suggestions to livestock owners in tick-free areas on the introduction, successful breeding, and feeding of improved cattle. Also contains information on marketing improved livestock.

TECHNICAL BULLETINS

The Technical Bulletins contain the results of scientific and research work applying to a special crop, industry, or locality. The editions are limited as they are intended primarily for scientific workers and subject-matter specialists.

Character and behavior of organic soil colloids. M. S. Anderson and Horace G. Byers, Bureau of Chemistry and Soils. 32 p. (Technical Bulletin 377T.) Price, 5¢.

A study of the properties of organic colloids as such, and special information concerning the organic portion of soil colloids. The various methods used in extracting them from the soil are described.

CIRCULARS

This series carries the less technical and more informal material of the same general nature as that in the Technical Bulletin series.

Tests of varieties and strains of large-seeded Virginia-type peanuts. J. H. Beattie, Bureau of Plant Industry, and E. T. Batten, in cooperation with the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station. 4 p. (Circular 272C.) Price, 5¢.

Of interest to peanut growers in assisting them to produce large-sized, plump, high-quality peanuts for the market. Suggestions given for developing such strains of stock as will improve conditions for both growers and handlers.

The survival of European corn-borer larvae in barns and other storage places. L. B. Scott and L. H. Patch. Bureau of Entomology. 7 p. (Circular 281C.) Price, 5¢.

Experiments for control of corn borer by disposal of borer-infested cornstalks prior to the beginning of moth emergence are described. Recommendations made on basis of information obtained from these investigations.

Three bacterial spots of tomato fruit. Mary K. Bryan, Bureau of Plant Industry. [5 p.] illus. (Circular 282C.) Price, 5¢.

Enables one to recognize the diseases of the tomato fruit caused by three different organisms. A fourth spot of unknown origin, similar to bacterial canker, is described to prevent its confusion with this disease.

MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

This series includes those publications of a miscellaneous nature which do not fall within any of the other series issued by the Department, particularly those of a size other than octavo. Such publications were formerly issued as Miscellaneous Circulars.

Black currant spreads white-pine blister rust. Samuel B. Detwiler, Bureau of Plant Industry. 8 p., illus. (Miscellaneous Publication 27MP. rev.) Price, 5¢.

Our forests; what they are and what they mean to us. Marie Foote Heisley, Forest Service. (Miscellaneous Publication 162MP.) Price, 5¢.

Traces the importance of a forest background from the earliest colonial times to the present. Forests are described as the "backbone of the nation", and the conservation of our trees is an urgent problem to all Americans. Much information herewith contained may be used in Arbor Day programs.

SOIL SURVEYS

These reports consist of two parts: (1) A soil map in colors showing the extent and distribution of the different soils in the area covered by the survey and (2) a printed report containing brief descriptions of the area, its climate and agriculture, and detailed descriptions of the soils. They are of interest and value primarily to residents of the area surveyed and to soil specialists. All requests for Soil Surveys are referred to the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils, which controls their distribution.

Iowa, Crawford County. (No. 30, Series 1928.) Price, 20¢.

Texas, Midland County. (No. 31, Series 1928.) Price, 20¢.

SERVICE AND REGULATORY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Such notices of judgment, decisions, and instructions as are necessary in the enforcement of regulatory acts are contained in these announcements. They are issued monthly or as necessary by certain bureaus. Free distribution is limited to persons in the employ of the Department, to public officials whose duties render it necessary for them to have such information to journals especially concerned, and to manufacturers and firms whose business is affected by the announcements.
